THE DEMOCRATIC FUND.

The contributions for the Democratic campaign fund have reached a total of $111.00. This is not the total contributed by Oconeeans, but simply the total of contributions sent to The Courier for the fund:

Previously acknowledged.....$109.00
W. J. Beard, Tamassee.....1.00
Jesse Lay, Tamassee.....1.00

Total to date.....$111.00

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Others have been tried and found wanting. The Willard battery never fails. Hughes Garage, Walhalla, adv.

—Miss Rhoda Dorsey and Norman Tow were married last Sunday, Oct. 31st, at the home of the bride, Rev. L. B. Norton officiating. The young couple have the best wishes of many friends.

—Our vulcanizing is absolutely guaranteed to outlast the rest of the tire. Walhalla Tire Shop, adv. 49tt

—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pritchard, Jr., are the proud parents of a son, who came to gladden their home last Saturday, Oct. 30. The young gentleman bears the name of his grandfather, Charles Wesley.

—All makes standard sewing machine needles at Moss & Ansel's, Walhalla, adv. 24-1f.

—M. M. DePree showed us yesterday a very interesting freak in the way of the cob from which the corn had been shelled. The cob is almost an absolutely perfect reproduction of a woman's hand, showing the thumb and all four fingers, each perfectly formed and separated one from the other from finger tips to knuckle joints. He has another cob—almost an exact duplicate of the other, except that it appears as a mitten hand, the finger shapes being perfect and the hand perfect, but the fingers are not separated. One of these freak cobs represents the right hand, the other the left. One cob he has been keeping as a curiosity since 1914, but the other was found in shelling corn last year. The full-formed hand is so true to nature in appearance as to be positively uncanny.

—Our shoe sales for the past three weeks prove our prices are right. Most of the sales have been made to people who did not look at others' prices. They said, from what they had heard, they were satisfied they did not equal ours. A few did look—but they came back. These are facts. Call and be convinced. Walk a block, save a dollar—Jaynes cuts the price and sells the goods.—adv.

—J. T. Campbell died at his home near Sandy Springs on Oct. 19. He had been in declining health for about a year, but the immediate cause of his death was dropsy. His sufferings for a week prior to his death were intense, but he bore all with great patience and with Christian fortitude. Mr. Campbell was about 61 years of age, and was born and reared in Oconee. He moved to Anderson county some 30 years ago. He was loved by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his death one daughter, Miss Janie Campbell; two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Crompton, of Walhalla, and Mrs. Adeline Whitfield, of Townville, and one brother, W. M. Campbell, of Seneca. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Manley, after which his body was laid to rest in the cemetery of Mount Zion, in Anderson county. There are many friends in Oconee and elsewhere who will learn with deep regret of his death, and who will join with us in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones.

—See Charlie Ray, in "Paris Green," as a bashful Doughboy among the "Paris" cafe—as a medaled hero welcomed home from the war—as a winner of a chase to rescue his girl from kidnappers—as a tutor in English and love when "Frenchie" comes to the farm. Rex Theatre Monday, Nov. 8—only 10 and 25c.—adv.

—Rev. C. B. Henry, of the Double Springs section, was in Walhalla for a short while yesterday, and he informed us that he expects to move down to the Calhoun section within the next week or ten days. He will engage in truck farming next year, having land in that part of our county or over on the Pickens side. He hopes to be able to retain his Oconee citizenship, but this will depend entirely upon what arrangements he is able to make in regard to land. We extend to his daughter, Miss Frances, our sincere thanks for six big, fine turnips. Miss Frances has a kindly feeling for editors and others connected with the newspaper business. We more than half suspect, however, that Miss Frances is "wise in her generation" and has learned that, to keep editors and others in a good humor, one must "feed thy beasts." Mr. Henry was hauling the last of his turnip crop, the whole of which he disposed of at the store of O. H. Schumacher, receiving $43.00 for the product of a very small patch.

—Mrs. C. G. Holtzclaw, of Greer, was a week-end guest of her friend, Miss Rose Mary Busch.

—Miss Sallie Duckworth, of Liberty, was the week-end guest of Miss Annie Cason, near town.

—Now is the time to save money. Have your auto tires vulcanized. Walhalla Tire Shop.—adv 49-tt.

—Mrs. Geo. W. Reese and son, Julius, of Norfolk, Va., visited her aunts, Mrs. H. C. Busch and Miss Johanna Baumgartel, last week. Mrs. Reese and her son were on their way to their winter home in Florida.

—There are many who will learn with regret of the death of Arthur W. Miller, formerly of Seneca and Walhalla, but who had for a number of years resided near Calhoun. Mr. Miller was a printer by occupation, and was well known to many through his connection with the old Seneca Free Press and the Oconee News, having lived in Walhalla for a number of years during his employment on the latter paper. He had been in poor health for quite a long while, but his death, we understand, was due to an attack of asthma. He was a good, honest man, not without his faults—a friend of everyone and his own worst enemy—yet withal a man of fine traits of character and a big, open, honest heart. He was about 50 years of age, and leaves a family to mourn his death. To the bereaved ones The Courier extends, along with a host of other friends, sincere sympathy in their sorrow. Mr. Miller's death occurred at his home near Calhoun on Saturday and the funeral and interment took place on Sunday.

—A marriage that was quite a surprise to the groom's many friends in Oconee and elsewhere took place at Layonia, Ga., on Sunday, Oct. 24, when Robert Schaffer led to the altar Miss Lottie Sewell, of Layonia. The marriage took place at 9 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage, and immediately after the ceremony the couple left for the home of the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Vaughan, on Walhalla Route No. 1, where a host of friends gathered to wish them God-speed. The bride and groom left Monday for Columbia and Charleston on their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends for a few days after November at Burton, S. C., at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schaffer. After the 7th of this month Mr. Schaffer will be stationed at Santa Maria, Cal., to which place he will take his bride in the near future. Mrs. Schaffer was one of Layonia's most popular young ladies. The Courier joins with other friends in extending to the young couple every good wish for long life, happiness and prosperity.

—What proved to be a most delightful occasion was a birthday dinner given on Sunday, Oct. 24th, in honor of B. C. Wood, two sons, Edison and Loyd, and Charlie Lee, his brother-in-law. Mr. Wood was 35 years old, Edison and Loyd 3 and 1, respectively, and Mr. Lee 24 years. As the clock struck 1 all were invited on the porch, where a long table was spread with many good things to eat. When everybody was seated around the table, which was beautifully decorated with roses and ferns, Mrs. Hattie Lee, Misses Mittle Wood, Vera Wood and Carrie Lee, acted as helpers at the table. After everybody had eaten all that was possible, and sorry they could not eat any more, Alvin Taylor made some complimentary remarks. Those present who enjoyed the occasion were Mrs. L. C. Wood, Mittle and Bobo Wood, H. A. Wood and family, Mrs. W. L. Miller and family, Will Lee and family, Albert Lee and family, all relatives of Mr. Wood; Alvin Taylor and wife, Madison Taylor and wife, of Walhalla, and Austin Sullivan and wife, of Anderson, friends of the Wood family. The children enjoyed themselves very much in the afternoon by riding on Mr. Wood's strip-down Ford. The many nice presents that were given were small tokens of the high regard and deep affection felt for the hosts. All wish for those in whose honor the occasion was held many, many happy returns of the day.

—At the time last week when we made note of the death of John D. Perry certain facts were not available with regard to his early life. We have since learned that Mr. Perry was born Feb. 25th, 1842, and was therefore, nearing his 79th year instead of being 77 years of age, as was stated last week. Mr. Perry was a member of Co. G, 7th Regiment of South Carolina Cavalry, in which capacity he served with marked fidelity until the close of the war. Among his old papers this interesting document was found: "Paroled Prisoner's Pass—Appomattox Court House, Va., April 10, 1865.—The bearer, Private J. D. Perry, of Co. G, 7th Regt. of S. C. Cavalry, a paroled prisoner of the Army of Northern Virginia, has permission to go to his home, and there remain undisturbed. (Signed) A. C. Haskell, Col. 7th S. C. Cavalry." Mr. Perry was a son of the late Foster Perry, of the Conners section of our county, and was a nephew of Governor Ben. Perry, of this State. He had three brothers in the service of the Confederacy, but these all went into the service from Texas, having moved to that State a number of years before the war. They were Clark, Wilburn and William Perry, and they saw service in the well-known organization, "The Texas Rangers." One other brother, Waddy Perry, on account of feeble health, was unable to join the military forces. All of the five brothers, we are informed, are now dead. Mr. Perry had three sisters, Mrs. Harry Hicks, Mrs. Eliza Wheeler and Mrs. Mariah Cleveland, all of whom preceded John D. Perry to the grave. He was married March 4th, 1874, to Miss Pernella Burt Moorhead, who survives him. G. L. Moorhead, of McRae, Ga., and his son, Burt Moorhead, were in Walhalla last week, having come over to attend the funeral of Mr. Perry.

Walhalla Boy Doing Good Work.

Davidson, N. C., Nov. 2.—Specialist: With an enrollment of 500, Davidson College is facing what promises to be one of the biggest and best years in its history. In every department of the college work new life can be seen.

Especially is this true of the R. O. T. C., at the head of which a cadet major, stands a son of Walhalla, Robt. L. Rogers. He is recognized by all as the best student of military science and tactics on the campus. He is the right hand of Capt. Hearn, who is in charge of the military department. In addition, Rogers has done fine work on the staff of The Annual as an artist. He is looked up to and respected by all as a true gentleman in every sense of the word.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—The death of Gen. E. M. Law at Bartow, Florida, on Sunday, Oct. 31st, leaves Brig.-Gen. Marcus J. Wright, of this city, and Brig.-Gen. Felix Robertson, of Crawford, Texas, and Brig.-Gen. Arthur Pendleton Bagby, also of Texas, as the only survivors of those who held the rank of general officers in the Confederate Army, according to records in the possession of Gen. Wright's family here.

Gen. Wright is now 89 years old, and came to Washington in 1878 as agent of the War Department in the collection and compilation of military records. He was born in Purdy, Tenn., June 5, 1831, and when still a small boy moved to Memphis, Tenn. Gen. Wright entered the service of the Confederacy in May, 1861, as lieutenant colonel of the 154th Tennessee Infantry, and was promoted to the rank of brigadier general in 1862. He was wounded at the Battle of Shiloh.

Roumania has recently placed large orders for print paper in Canada instead of in Finland and Sweden as heretofore.
